TYPE SEVEN

THE ADVENTURER

If it wasn't for you, our world would be without adventure and joy. Your curiosity and spontaneity are inspiring. You seek love through exciting new experiences.

Though you are optimistic and playful, you struggle with focusing and becoming easily bored. Remember that the way things are right now is not how they will always be.

Remember not everyone has your energy or sense of adventure. Your relationships would benefit from knowing that more is not always better. Negative feelings don't last forever so welcome them as an emotional adventure.
